

Ding Yi, 1962 —

Ding Yi has been making abstract paintings using crosses and grids since the late 1980s. The cross, whether a + or an x with thematic variation, is a motif that the artist has declared a formal mark without meaning, in order to emphasise his rationalist approach to painting. The context of Ding's work has always been the incredibly fast-paced development of the industrial urban environment in post-socialist China, and the work, whether predominantly black, painted on tartan, or elaborated in intense fluorescent colours, all bear the title Appearance of Crosses with a date. Ding's practice encompasses painting, sculpture, spatial installation and architecture.

Ding Yi's work is held in private and public collections internationally including the Centre Pompidou, Paris; Daimler Art Collection, Berlin; DSL Collection, Paris; Leeum, Samsung Museum of Art, Seoul; Long Museum, Shanghai; M+, Hong Kong; and Yuz Museum in Shanghai.

Recent solo exhibitions for the artist include Ding Yi: Highlight, Galerie Karsten Greve, Paris (2021); Ding Yi: Lightscapes, Timothy Taylor, New York, NY, USA (2021); Ding Yi: The Cross Style, Long Museum, Chongqing (2020); Ding Yi: Recent Works, Timothy Taylor, London, UK (2019); Ding Yi with ShanghART, Various Others Gallery Weekend, Berlin, Germany (2019); Grids, Galerie Karsten Greve, Paris, France (2019); Interchange, ShanghART, Shanghai, China (2018); 30 Years — Ding Yi's Works, Guangdong Museum of Art, Guangzhou, China (2018); Appearance of Crosses, Timothy Taylor, New York, NY, USA (2017); Appearance of Crosses: A Chronicle, Xi'an Art Museum, Xi'an, China (2017); Ding Yi, Timothy Taylor, London, UK (2017); Re-Appearance of Crosses, a retrospective at the Hubei Museum of Art in Wuhan, China (23 April — 2 June, 2016), and participation in Art Basel Unlimited (16 June — 19 June, 2016).
